

ALEX THOMSON

RACING

Terms and Conditions of Alex Thomson Racing Sailing Experience prize provided by 5 West Limited t/a Alex Thomson Racing ("ATR").

Experience description –

This experience includes an exclusive opportunity for two to go sailing in the Solent with Alex in 2017. The entry for this experience will run from the 28th October until the end of the Vendee Globe race.

Sailing date description, format and duration

Experience descriptions, format and timings are intended to present a general idea of the experience and shall not be considered binding.

The Sailing Experience will include a briefing and safety induction and a few hours of sailing. The experience will be for the competition winner and one other person.

The Sailing Experience will take place in the UK in 2017, subject to the availability of the boat as detailed below.

Availability

The date of the sailing experience may be amended at the discretion of ATR to fit in with its sponsorship and racing commitments. The experience is subject to weather conditions and as such may be cancelled or postponed at late notice.

Restrictions

All participants must be over 18 years of age. Participants must be physically fit and may be refused access to the experience if suffering from medical/physical issues which would affect the safety of themselves and other participants. If you suffer from any physical or mental issues please check before participation in the experience.

Location

The experience is offered in the UK, sailing to take place in the Solent, from Gosport. ATR reserves the right to change the venue to a reasonable alternative location with adequate notice to the participants. All costs of getting to and from the location are to be borne by the participant.

Clothing

Participants are to ensure they dress appropriately for the weather, wearing lots of layers and must ensure they wear clear rubber soled waterproof shoes. ATR will provide outer clothing for wet weather only.

Cancellation

ALEX THOMSON

— RACING —

If the sailing day is cancelled by ATR either before or on the day of the event due to circumstances beyond their control, ATR will arrange to re-schedule the date, we will attempt to provide a date which is acceptable to all participants, however the amended date will be at the discretion of ATR alone. If the re-scheduled date is not acceptable to a participant they may with the approval of ATR transfer their Sailing Experience to a third party.

ATR will not be liable for any costs incurred by a participant due to cancellation due to circumstances beyond their control.

If a participant arrives late, misses or cancels their experience ATR has no obligation to re-organise or replace with another date and has no liability to any costs incurred by the participant.

Liability

Sailing an IMOCA 60 racing boat and water based activities in general are inherently hazardous sports with unforeseen dangers, in order to take part in the Sailing Experience you will be required to sign a disclaimer releasing ATR of any liability to you for loss or damage arising out of the activity, other than in respect of death or personal injury directly resulting from ATR's negligence. ATR indemnify participants against damage to the boat and its equipment.
